

Hello, awesome Rock Stars!

Really hope you're all doing OK! It feels so weird not to be seeing you today! Watch out for a text or an email to your parents about a Zoom meeting this week... 😊

Oh – and...

Happy Easter!

But hang on – what's happy about Jesus on a cross? And why is Good Friday good...?

You maybe already have some ideas about the answers to those questions... Today we're celebrating the fact that Jesus came alive again – and that His new life means we can all have life – forever!

So – here are some things you might like to do today...

Here's a great worship song, which really helps me understand why Easter is such good news! Take a look:

Make an Easter Garden!

Set a time each day for the next five days and read a bit of the Easter story – don't worry if you miss a day, though!

Question to ask yourself as you read: what does this show me about Jesus....?

- Today: Luke 24:1-8 – Jesus is risen!
- Day 1: Luke 24:9-12 – Peter checks out the evidence
- Day 2: Luke 24:13-35 – Two friends... and a surprise guest
- Day 3: Luke 24:36-49 – Jesus appears to His Disciples
 - Day 4: John 20:24-29 – Jesus and Thomas

As always, we'd love to hear about what you choose to do – you can text or email or share it to the GeckoLife chat 😊!

Missing you and hoping to see you soon!
